The Intelligencer. FREW, CAMPBELL & HART,

Weekly, Six Months.

WHEELING, FEBRUARY 20, 1889.

SECRETARY BAYARD thinks he has been meanly judged. He is lucky to get off with a whole hide after his exhibitions of diplomacy.

A New York rabbi describes Washington as a second Moses. The Father of his Country certainly made things very great role of Pharaoh.

In Pennsylvania the Third Party peo ple and those who really want the prohibitory amendmentare having about such a time as the same parties to the same ontroversy had in West Virginia.

BEFORE the Legislature adjourns it should give the people the immigration measure, and appropriation, which they demand as the best investment the State can make. We want men and money in West Virginia.

toughs are banded together they dignify themselves with the name White Caps. Biack caps, close-fitting and drawn down tight, would be an appropriate headgear for most of them.

Way is it that an ex-President of the United States may practice law without loss of dignity, but would let go everything if he went behind a counter to measure calico or deal out molasses? Are we becoming a Nation of snobs?

An esteemed correspondent, whose communication appears herewith, desires the Intelligence to deal him out liberal portion of that doctrine of good rule not to reward men for that abdifference to them whether the President of the United Stats is a Free Trader or a Protectionist. The INTELLIGENCER's idea of the Civil Service is that, except where the law stands in the way, Democrats should be put out and Republicans put in. This is in entire harmony with the view expressed by the Intelligencen four years ago, that Republicans who did not go out should be put out and Democrate put in. Some of our Republican friends did not then like this idea. They take to it now with the keenest relish.

times and in proper quantities something else than labor to dwell on.

Body and mind, kept at continuous bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilbialis, corns, and all skin cruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required, It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents need of diversion. The man who works have all the satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Logan & Co. all day in a rolling mill finds delight in working his garden after supper in the summer evenings. The change of employment rests him. Professional men, others of sedentary habit and all whose employment keeps them in doors with little opportunity for bodily exercise are the better for the gymnasium, a pull in a boat, a dash on a good horse or a lively turn on the bi-cycle, which may be called the poor man's horse and carriage. The Germans of to-day understand this, as did the ancient Greeks, and turn it to account.

The English do better than the Americans, who are doing more now than ever before to strengthen the mind by building up the body. In Wheeling athletic exercise in one orm and another grows steadily in favor. Our street improvement contributes its share by making unsurpassed roadways for wheelmen. Two excellent gymnasiums, that of the Y. M. C. A. and that of the Wheeling Athletic Club, play a useful part, though they do not yet in-clude in their membership all who could be benefitted by them.

There is no greater mistake than to suppose that a reasonable time devoted to athletic sport is time wasted. No other investment of time pays so handsome a dividend.

President Cleveland and the Commo

President Cleveland, in his exceed ingly common place letter to the Tariff Reform League, is very solicitous of the welfare of the common people, who, he fears, do not understand the tariff ques-

The recent election should have re moved from Mr. Cleveland's mind all aplively for George III in his celebrated prehension on this score. It was the common people who defeated his re-election and the common people defeated him because they understand the tariff ques-tion as it touches their bread and butter.

from whom a brief letter was first read-"trusting that the faithful in this dio-"trusting that the faithful in this do-cese will reflect seriously on the many important lessons" contained in the Pope's letter. The Holy Father, after setting out with a reference to the cele-bration of his golden jubilee "and the the universal testimony to religion which is displayed," continued in part as follows:

we becoming a Nation of snobs?

Salvation at 80 Much a Seat.
Salvation's free.
For you and me.
runs the good old Methodist hymn. Not so in St. Thomas's Protestant Episcopal church in New York. The sexton of that church has stirred up Gotham by declaring that St. Thomas's is run for the pew rents and the receipts in general, which have become so large that the dividends are no inconsiderable part of the income of certain members.
The sexton further admits that on a recent Sunday morning he did put out of the church a lady and gentleman who were on their kness praying in a pew to which they had not been invited.
A New York dispatch quotes the high priest of the Mott street joss house as saying that anybody, no matter of what religion, may come to his church any day in the week and pray as much as he likes to any deity ho pleases.
Whether this is a fact or a fancy it is a keen satire on the administration of St. Thomas's, which professes to be a Christian church as well as an earner of dividends for the dollar-devotees whe worship at its strine.

St. Thomas's my be "all right" in this world, but in the next it will want to run a corner on palmleaf fans.

An Idea of the Civil zervice.
An esteemed correspondent, whose communication appears herewith, designed the large of the corner of the same kind to which we have referred fully elsowhere, it will be found that nothing can heal them more completely or surely than Christian faith.

Bailroad Building in 1888.

Bailroad Building in 1888.

There were 7,106.4 miles of railroad builtin the United States during 1888, by a total of 370 lines, according to a table at the told and cheeriess view, of Mugwang origin, which rules out of the public service the earnest man who works hard for his party, feels intensely on party questions and yet is not so big a toad in the political puddle as to get his name in the newspapers as a probable Cabinet officer.

It is not possible to reward all the party workers of good character, but it is a good rule not to roward men for that absence of city systems which leaves them.

good rule not to reward men for that absence of civic virtue which leaves them of the five Central Northern States, or of so utterly non-partisan that it makes no difference to them whether the President ritories.

About A Hatch Which was in Good Shape.

Almost everybody now admits that athletic sport, if not overdone or indulged in to the neglect of studies, is a good thing for young men at college. Whether this be admitted or not it is a fact. If it were not so experienced educators would take care to hanish the gymhasium, the base ball field, the rowing course from the college curriculum of which these sports are now as much a part as the Latin, the Greek and the mathematics.

The happy combination of physical exercise and real sport is good for the mental as well as the physical organism for that which expands the chest and develops the muscles, expands the mind by relieving it and stimulates the mental working power by giving it at proper times and in proper quantities something else than labor to dwell on.

Body and mind, kept at continuous druggery, can never produce the best things of which they are consults. The sent his money in and received his tickets promptly. He purchased ten forticth these about 10th of December, 1888. Among the ten was No. 9,9704, the number that drow the capital prize, $000,000. When informed that if had drawn $15,000, he went at once to Waco and there deposited his ticket with the American National bank. Four days after he was paid by the American National bank the $15,000. Mr. Hatch has a wife and six children. He was comparatively a poor man, working as overseer of the W. P. Gaines big valley farm, three miles south from MeGregor, on a salary.—McGregor (Tex.) Observer, Jan. 5.

Siz:-Can't you deal us out a liberal portion in your paper of Civil Service doctrine? I am getting ravenous for it even the children around about cry for It is a most excellent doctrine that the big fellows should have the big offices, but that it is not material that the little fellows should have the little offices, for the minor appointive offices, untils the big offices, are non-political.

"Ah, ar'n't they though?" says an objector. "may not party snocess; in some jector; "may not party success in some cases depend on the assurance that the minor offices shall be held by the friends of the party? and is not the prospect of success the greater the stronger this assurance?"

assurance?"
Not at all; the party hustler works for glory and not for reward. He no more works for reward than the good man, who struggles to get to the better world has in view the hope of recompense of "sweet fields arrayed in living green, and rivers of delight," and that sort of thing. Oh, it's a savory doctrine! this non-partisan Civil Service idea. So please dish it up to us, for I am "very hungry and thirsty" for it."

When disease racks the frame, when sores cover the person, when aches are in every joint, when the muscles are soft and flabby, when the least exertion gives fatigue, when the mind is filled with gloom and despondency, what is there in life worth living, and yet many eke out just such a miserable existence, living only for those who love them. When it is generally known that Brown's Iron Bitters will cure the above disorders how many hearts will be made glad! How many homes made happy!
